A Radio Play for Kids and Their Parents – by Roland Zoss

«Jimmy-Flitz»

A Trip to the Swiss Alps»

Jimmy Flitz – A Trip to the Swiss Alps is an imaginary story in many different Swiss dialects. Collected on 3 CDs is a mythical tale in 18 chapters and songs, featuring some of the most famous Swiss dialect singers and comedians like Büne Huber, Corin Curschellas, Marco Rima, Hanery Amman, Christine Lauterburg, Roland Zoss and others.

Swiss people often don't remember that they are descendants of an unruly and somewhat stubborn alpine tribe in the heart of Europe. They tend to forget that the soil they live on used to be an ancient site of power where wild animals roamed freely. The impressive snow-white mountains still dominate Switzerland to this day.

The wild animals and mythical creatures in this fast-paced story receive their voices from actors speaking their native Swiss dialects. Along the way we meet a cool raven and a queer dwarf (Marco Rima) as well as a famous crocodile-locomotive (Hanery Amman). On the pilgrimage to the mysterious menhirs (holy stones) and sacred lakes, the mouse Jimmy Flitz, and a tiger meet a bear-wolf (Thomas Bär), a vulture (Büne Huber), and a dragon (Roberto Bargellini). On foot, by air, train or ballon they travel over high mountain passes and through impressive gorges, visiting times long past when mythical creatures reigned.

Swiss songwriter and novelist Roland Zoss has not invented new stories, but has created a modern interpretation of old Swiss legends and folk tales for kids from age 4. His songs are sparkling musical „nuggets“ which will please the parents, too. After „Xenegugeli“, „Slumberland“, „Güschi“ and other albums, the famous Swiss singer and songwriter has again accomplished a masterpiece with this lovely new story of the mouse Jimmy-Flitz. It is tale of rare beauty and a fine piece of art for everyone!
